

JIVE TALKIN'

Winter 2022
Volume 23, Issue 1

The Mardi Gras Ball is back, and it's gonna be a blast!

On March 27, members will enjoy the newest edition of FOJ's biggest annual fundraiser at its new venue, the Elks Lodge.

When Fat Tuesday (Mardi Gras) came and went in 2021 and no date or location had been announced, Friends of Jazz members knew it would be at least another year before they'd be able to rev up for and attend what is always the most exciting and widely anticipated event on FOJ's calendar.

Well, that time is finally here! Our 20th annual Mardi Gras Ball is right around the corner. It boasts an all-new location, the Fullerton Elks Lodge - which offers easy parking and easy access to the building - and will spotlight the instrumental and vocal jazz talents of students from both of Fullerton's colleges.

On Sunday evening, March 27, it'll be all New Orleans, all the time. FOJ patrons have been anticipating this event for more than two years, so we know you won't want to miss it.

The catchphrase for Mardi Gras is "Laissez les bons temps rouler" (let the good times roll), and things will get rolling at 5 p.m. with the reception and cocktail hour. Guests will be served gourmet appetizers and will receive a complimentary cocktail.

Guests will have a chance to see dozens of silent auction goodies (photos and a partial list of auction items are on page three), relax, have a drink, and mix and mingle.

The formal program starts at 6 p.m., as Master of Ceremonies Wayne Mason takes the microphone, welcomes FOJ's guests, and introduces the various notables on hand for the festivities. Next up, Nick and Dottie Batinich, the 2020 Mardi Gras King and Queen, will be honored in a presentation acknowledging them as reigning King and Queen, presiding over this year's festivities. Led by our royals, our traditional, New Orleans-style Krewe Parade will get underway – so let the revelry begin! Dinner is served at 7 p.m. as guests dine on their previously ordered choice of shrimp, chicken, filet mignon, vegetarian or gluten-free pasta. As dessert and coffee are brought in, patrons will have their last chance to get in their hopefully winning bids on the prized items they want to take home.

Helping to demonstrate the value of FOJ’s ongoing mission, talented student jazz musicians from Fullerton College and Cal State University Fullerton will provide the music for the entire evening, from the opening moments to the Krewe Parade and to the after-dinner entertainment featuring live instrumental and vocal jazz performances. A variety of surprise guest artists will take the stage to add further spice to the evening.

Formally on the bill from CSUF are the Titan Ramblers, directed by Bill Cunniff. From Fullerton College, we’ll enjoy the Fullerton College Big Band, directed by Bruce Babad, and the J-Train jazz vocalists under the direction of Jamie Shew.

Our new hotspot for this one-of-a-kind event is the Fullerton Elks Lodge, 1400 Elks View Lane in Fullerton. Cost, which includes dinner, is $125 per person. What to wear? Formal wear, of course! (black tie or Mardi Gras attire are optional).

FOJ's high school jazz band program is off to a rip-roaring start

Photos by Judi McDuff

Main Street Bar & Grill in Yorba Linda hosted our first three high school jazz band concerts of the year. Mission Viejo High trombone player Brice Kirk, left, was the scholarship winner on Feb. 26. La Serna High's Alessandro Villatora, alto/soprano sax player, seen above (center) flanked by band director Matt Rohrs and FOJ's Jim Harlan, the program's director, captured the top prize on Feb. 19. On Feb. 12, Esperanza High's Bryan Bergo (above right), seen with director Brad Davis, blew us away with his trumpet playing. Each individual was awarded $500, with the same sum going to each high school's band program.

Upcoming Events:

- March 27, 2022: 20th Annual Friends of Jazz Mardi Gras Ball, Fullerton Elks Lodge
- April 22-23, 2022: Fullerton College's 47th Annual Jazz Festival, Fullerton

Give a scholarship to FOJ in your name

Many a past Friends of Jazz member or supporter has given generously to help our many students in their continuing studies learning and performing jazz.

If you donate $500 to FOJ, we'll create a scholarship in your name. We can even have you help award the scholarship at a Friends of Jazz event.

For more details, call Nick Batinich at 714-525-6669. 🎵

AROUND TOWN

Don't miss the chance to hear the area's top high school jazz musicians in Friends of Jazz's newly revived high school jazz band program. Run by Jim Harlan of FOJ, we're now congregating at Main Street Restaurant in Yorba Linda. All concerts are free to the public. Doors open at noon and the concerts are from 1 to 3 p.m. Coming up in April and May are Katella High (April 16), Yorba Linda (April 23), Valencia (April 30), El Dorado (May 7), Fullerton (May 14) and Irvine (May 21).

Sunset Jazz at Bayside has a full slate of new concerts on Tuesday nights in March, April and May. March 15 spotlights the Benny Benack III quartet. March 29 features vocalist Tierney Sutton as she celebrates the music of Alan and Marilyn Bergman. On April 12, it's Ella and Ray featuring Barbara Morrison and Billy Valentine as they celebrate their heroes, Ella Fitzgerald and Ray Charles. April 26 is a swingin' "triple treat" of Hammond B3 wizard Tony Monaco, guitarist Grant Geissman and drummer/vocalist Dave Tull. May 3 will deliver an evening of bossa nova and straight-ahead jazz with Teka Penteriche and her band, joined by saxophonist Rickey Woodard. Bayside is located at 900 Bayside Drive in Newport Beach. Concerts are from 6 to 8:30 p.m. in the main dining room, and reservations are required. For information, visit sunsetjazznewport.com or call 949-759-5003.

The annual Muckenthaler Jazz Festival is back in full swing with six consecutive Thursday-night concerts starting on May 12 with Debbi Ebert and the CSUF Jazz Orchestra and ending on June 16 with Omaro Ruiz and Catina DeLuna. For tickets and information, call 714-738-6595 or send an email to info@themuck.org.

If you love the music of Ella Fitzgerald (and who doesn't?), you won't want to miss "First Lady of Song: Alexis J. Roston sings Ella Fitzgerald" at Laguna Playhouse March 2-20. For tickets and information, call 949-497-2787 or visit lagunaplayhouse.com. 🎵
