Summer 2023

Volume 4, Issue 4

Western Hoedown a fun ol' fashioned gig

The night featured foot-stompin' music, yummy BBQ & plenty of dancing

"Country Hoedown: dance based on the movements of hoeing corn and potatoes" (from the early 1800s).

The Velvet Rose was the site of this fun party hosted by Friends of Jazz on Sunday, June 4. About 45 attended.

Coyote Sunrise Band offered some crowd-pleasing down-home country tunes along with rock-n-roll songs—"Achy Breaky Heart," "Ring of Fire," "Boot Scootin' Boogie," "Tequila Sunrise," "Peaceful Easy Feeling," "I Love this Bar," "Margaritaville," "Crazy," "Friends in Low Places," "Mustang Sally," "Sweet Home Alabama," "Let's Give them Something to Talk About" and a whole lot more.

The food served by Chef Z and staff was delicious—barbeque with all the fixins, coffee and dessert.

Included was a 50/50 drawing, a wine table and a number of silent auction items.

Many thanks to Delaney (who sold the 50/50 tickets), Jeanie Stockwell (who sold drink tickets), Pat who tended bar, Larry, Colleen and Pam. And the cutest crawler on the floor!

Your membership matters. It's time for our annual membership drive. If your membership has expired, the sooner you renew it, the better for FOJ and its mission—keeping music in the schools. A membership form for first-time members, renewals, or to make a donation is on page three of this issue.

We also need you to help us reach out to others and ask them to join – so we're asking every current member to find at least one family member, friend, co-worker, neighbor or acquaintance and urge them to join us. Once they hear about Friends of Jazz's positive influence within the community, they'll want to be part of our helping students. And you all get to enjoy our parties and events.

Donations over and above membership dues are the lifeblood that keeps us going, so you can also help there. And you can write off your donations to Friends of Jazz when you itemize your taxes.

If you can't renew or join, please consider volunteering for us. Thank you for whatever you can do to help keep music in schools!
